LÍNGUA INGLESA – QUESTÕES DE 41 A 50

Good News / Bad News

- 1 An artist who was part of an exhibition, asked the gallery owner if his paintings, currently on display, were attracting a
2 reasonable amount of interest.
3 "I've got good news and bad news," the owner replied.
4 "Give me the good news first," the artist demanded.
5 The good news is that a gentleman inquired about your work and wondered about their value in the future, after your death.
6 When I told him that in such a case it would astronomically increase, he bought all 15 of your paintings."
7 "That's wonderful!", the artist exclaimed, "What could the bad news possibly be?"
8 With concern, the gallery owner replied, "The gentleman in question was your doctor."
